Small Wonders

| By Laurie Kable |

After years of upsizing, watchmakers reverse direction with tiny timepieces that make rich fall fashion statements. Straps in shades of camel, tobacco and chocolate complement the look, as do rose gold cases and dials.

It's a Wrap!

Hermès' next-generation Kelly 2 recalls the lock on the famous bag and the brand's equestrian heritage with a supple double-wrap calfskin strap. Stainless steel watch with Swiss-made quartz movement, $1,775, at Hermès, Beverly Hills

Little Lady

Piaget downsized its versatile Altiplano to a demure 24mm and made it shimmer with brilliant-cut diamonds and a satin strap. 18K rose gold watch with diamonds, $10,000, at Piaget, South Coast Plaza

Seconds to None

At 29mm, Audemars Piguet's Classique Small Seconds exudes Old-World elegance with a small seconds display at 6 o'clock. 18K pink gold watch with diamonds, $17,800, by Audemars Piguet at Westime, Beverly Hills

Satin Doll

Dating back to the 1940s, Cartier's enduring Pasha collection takes a feminine turn with the Miss Pasha featuring a satin strap. 27mm watch in 18K rose gold with eight diamond hour markers, $10,850, at Cartier, Beverly Hills

Heart of Stones

Luminescent mineral dials bring depth and drama to Dior's diminutive La Mini D De Dior collection. Watch with bull's-eye stone dial in 19mm pink gold case set with diamonds, $8,050, by Dior at David Orgell, Beverly Hills
